The Instructive, Poetical and Entertaining
HISTORY
 OF THE
 Ancient MILITIA in Yorkshire,
 Under the Renowned King VENUSIUS.

Occasioned by his perfidious Queen CARTISMANDUA: Who not only took the usurping Armour Bearer VELOCATUS into her salacious Embraces, but ejected her royal Spouse from his Throne; besides betraying CARATICUS to CÆSAR, with whom she sided against her Country: For which unnatural Treachery the Subjects raised a potent Army to defend their injur'd Sovereign from wicked Combinations: All which occasion these entertaining Subjects, not published in English before, as preparatory to a better Work, and proper to be perused for its pleasing Antiquity throughout the Nation.

- I. A Journey thro' Yorkshire: The City describ'd, in its anient State during Heathenism, when its royal Founder King ERRANC reigned with his fair Queen BEDERNA: Where likewise SEVERUS resided, whose funeral Honours were exhibited near Acomb: And, How CONSTANTINE the Great (Son of Chlorus and Helena) was proclaimed Emperor; who, departing to Italy, gave Orders for destroying the Temples of Idolatry.
- II. Traditional Observations of our famous Mountains and Rivers; and of the Towns, Castles and sylvan Fortresses inhabited by Heroes and Heroines: Their various Preparations for War, whilst arming in Defence of their much abused Prince, who miraculously obtain'd the prophetic Shield by the Cumaan Sybil. Interspersed with Narrations concerning ancient Mythology, with Inventors of necessary Arts and Sciences.
- III. An Account of the famous Battle in all its Glory: The Worthies slain on either Side: The astonishing Valour of fair SABELLA, who slew the perfidious Queen: How the puissant ARVIRAGUS overcame DIDIUS the Roman General; and of the said King of the Brigantes, who (killing many of his Enemies) wounded Vespasian, and overthrew the mighty SERRAIUS: By which means the Yorkshire Champions gain'd a compleat Victory over the Foes, according to Camden's famous Writings.
